

Brunswick Heads Fairy Trail

Fairies come here, some to live, and some to holiday in Airy Fairy B and B's. Would you like to see some of their hidey places? Follow the clues.....

At the sea end of the footbridge in the shady glade is the dear little house that Melaleuca fairy made. If you look among the trees you will see the mirror house of Maya Elizabeth and Pandanna fairy. And can you see Bridget's tiny house by the bridge?

Over the bridge in the playground in a fig, Freddy and Figgy fairy live. Sh! Their home is their castle where they sleep all day till silver starlight sings them out to play. Please be quiet as a mouse and never ever touch their house.

A cross the road visit Kitty The Milk Bar fairy. Look in the shops nearby for Illoura's fairy house beneath pictures of human houses. Just along the way in at The Brunswick River Inn visit Madrigal's Fairy Rest Affordable Community Housing for fairies. How many little doors can you see?

It's so hard to resist, but it would help hugely if children don't touch the houses- they get damaged quite often (sometimes permanently) by rough play. If you would like to post your photo by a fairy house on Brunzfairies Facebook page, that fairy will write a comment just for you.

Then turn around and go back along the terrace and around the corner into Fingal Street.

At the Post Office in a secret post box lives the Post Office Fairy. Near the fire station on Fingal Street, a fairy fire station in a tree! It's the home of the Fiery Fairy. Look above, and if you're in luck, you might spot the fairy fire truck.

And just next door under the Police Sign, can you find the green pumpkin house of Polly The Helper? Back across the road in the Print shop, can you see Amanuensis the fairy scribe's little house? In the park beside the library you will find Gum Blossom's house and Fairy Nanny Annie's lovely home. Then pop into the library, and have a look, Can you find the fairy reading nook? (Hint: it's in a book)

Around the corner at The Visitor Centre there is Rosie's little Fairy Information Centre. Just along the way see Noni The Smile Fairy by the footpath outside Yami Vegetarian Cafe. Across the road outside Fabulous Mrs Fox, lives Helianthus - can you find her house?

Still on Park Street, as you head back towards Fingal Street, look in the side window at Michaela's Hair and Beauty and see the Fairy Hair Salon. Next door see Derrel's little house at Elderflower Realty. Cap'n Pete lives in the Bait and Tackle shop on the corner of Fingal and Park Streets. He fixes the Fairy fishing fleet and tells the fairies where to fly to airy fairy B & B's when they visit Cap'n Pete's Fairy Chandlery. Can you spot the flying fairy fishing boats?

Then just across Fingal Street at The Health Food store, can you see Vitality Fairy's fruity house? Now, pass the Memorial Hall, and stop at The Brunswick Heads Picture House. Can you find the house of Miss Julianna Chookas, "La Fee Magique", world famous cabaret fairy? Miss Chookas lives here when she is not on tour, so please drop by and say Bonjour!

Over the road from the Picture House, go to Valiant Music and see where Cecilia the Music Fairy lives in her Magic Guitar. Now back across the street, and just before you come to a gate in a wall, you'll see a little house that you won't forget; it belongs to Fairy Metta from Tibet. Then walk very slowly and look down low and you will see Sugarbag Fairy at the base of a wrinkled old tree. Not far along in a tree find Kerry The Caring Fairy.

There is a donations jar at Clem's Cargo, where you may like to contribute to the maintenance of the Fairy Trail.

Around the next corner and over the road (at the crossing of course), You will find Clem's Cargo. Inside the shop, I wonder if you've seen her....the recycling fairy: Clementina. Can you find her glittery house? (Clem's is closed on Mondays and Tuesdays)

The fairy trail sometimes gets disturbed by possums, strong winds or cheeky pixies....if you see anything that looks like it needs fixing, please ask your big people to call or text 0428 284 030 and let the fairy grandmother know so that she can go and make repairs.
