

Brunswick Heads Fairy Trail

Fairies come here, some to live, and some to holiday in Airy Fairy B and B's. Would you like to see some of their hidey places? Follow the clues.....

At the sea end of the footbridge, hidden amongst some rocks in the shady glade are the dear little rock houses that Melaleuca fairy made. And can you see Bridget's tiny house by the bridge?

Across the footbridge, on your left see Madrigal's Fairy Rest.

Across the road on The Terrace, in a shop window, can you find Illoura's fairy house beneath pictures of human houses.

Then turn and go back along The Terrace and around the corner into Fingal Street. At the Post Office in a secret post box lives the Post Office Fairy. Over the road near the Fire Station on Fingal Street, a fairy fire station in a tree!

It's the home of the Fiery Fairy.

Look up high, and if you're in luck, you might spot the fairy fire trucks.

And just next door under the Police Sign, can you find the green pumpkin house of Polly The Helper? Nearby also you can see Jo Jo the Wildlife Carer Fairy.

Back across the road in the Bruns Book shop you can visit Jill Urusla's Story Tree.

In the window of the Print Rescue shop, can you see Amanuensis the fairy scribe's little house?

In the park beside the library you will find Gum Blossom's house and Fairy Nanny Annie's lovely home. Then pop into the library, and have a look, Can you find the fairy reading nook? (Hint: it's in a book)

Around the corner at The Visitor Centre there is Rosie's little Fairy Information Centre. Across the road outside Fabulous Mrs Fox, lives Helianthus - can you find her shelly house?

Still on Park Street, as you head back towards Fingal Street, look in the side window at Michaela's Hair and Beauty and see the Fairy Hair Salon.

Cap'n Pete lives in the Bait and Tackle shop on the corner of Fingal and Park Streets. He fixes the Fairy fishing fleet and tells the fairies where to fly to airy fairy B & B's when they visit Cap'n Pete's Fairy Chandlery.

Can you spot the flying fairy fishing boats?

Then just across Fingal Street at The Health Food store, can you see Vitality Fairy's fruity house?

Now, pass the Memorial Hall, and stop at The Brunswick Heads Picture House.

Can you find the house of Miss Julianna Chookas, "La Fee Magique", world famous cabaret fairy?

Miss Chookas lives here when she is not on tour, so please drop by and say Bonjour!

She is on tour at present, but do not fear, she will be back early next year.

Over the road from the Picture House, go to Valiant Music and see where Cecilia the Music Fairy lives in her Magic Guitar. Can you spot a shop called Bottle and Hoop on the same side of the street? Find Eve the Foodie Fairy there.

Now back across the street, and just before you come to a gate in a wall, you'll see a little house that you won't forget; it belongs to Fairy Metta from Tibet. Then walk very slowly and look down low and you will see Sugarbag Fairy at the base of a wrinkled old tree. Not far along in a tree find Kerry the Caring Fairy.

Around the next corner and over the road (at the crossing of course), You will find Clem's Cargo. Inside the shop, I wonder if you've seen her....the recycling fairy: Clementina. Can you find her glittery house? (Clem's is closed on Mondays and Tuesdays)

The fairy trail sometimes gets disturbed by possums, strong winds or cheeky pixies....if you see anything that looks like it needs fixing, please ask your big people to call or text 0428 284 030 and let the fairy grandmother know so that she can go and make repairs.

It's so hard to resist, but it would help hugely if children don't touch the houses- they get damaged quite often (sometimes permanently) by rough play. If you would like to post your photo by a fairy house on Brunzfairies Facebook page, that fairy will share it, and write a comment just for you.

There is a donations jar at Clem's Cargo, where you may like to contribute to the maintenance of the Fairy Trail.
